

Subject Graduation requirements

Authors Her and others

Analyst Cristina Parra

Date February 21, 2019

Overview

This bill amends high school graduation requirements by reducing the number of elective credits required from seven to six and a half, and requiring at least one-half credit for a course in personal finance.